

Back by popular demand!

Congregation Rodef Shalom's popular hamantaschen fundraiser has returned thanks to the generosity of Rob Lederman and the Blue Point Bakery in collaboration with Mark Millenson Caterers and the Rodef Shalom Sisterhood.

The hamantaschen are kosher pareve (and STILL the biggest ones you'll ever find!). They are made in the Rodef Shalom kitchen under the supervision of Rabbi Bernard Gerson. Four flavor varieties are available in half-dozen and whole dozen boxes. You can divide the boxes to your preference. Just tell us how many pieces of each flavor to place into the boxes.

Orders due to Rodef Shalom's main office NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, FEB. 17
 Questions? Call 303.399.0035

Please note: Only pre-paid orders will be filled – Deadline reminder: Wednesday, February 17.
 Hamantaschen are not delivered except to homebound.

Call the office or check the website (www.rodef-shalom.org) for hamantaschen pick up times.
